1. Do you think the Federal Government should take urgent action on the national housing crisis by immediately bringing forward 50% of the funding attached to National Housing Strategy?

YES

NO

2. The National Housing Strategy has set targets to reduce chronic homelessness and take households out of housing need. What do you think the government should set as top priorities: (Number 1-4)

helping families access affordable housing by increasing supply helping families access affordable housing by addressing income inequality

funding social housing (co-operative housing, supported housing etc)

reducing street-involved homelessness

other _____

3. The National Housing Strategy also has a stated aim to address barriers to home ownership for middle class Canadians. Do you think that this should be a priority?

4. What more could the federal government do to solve the housing crisis in Canada?

5. Other comments and suggestions:

Thank you so much for taking the time to provide feedback on the National Housing Strategy. Feedback will be compiled into a report that I will deliver to Jean-Yves Duclos, federal Minister of Families, Children and Social Development. I appreciate your participation in this, and I look forward to continuing this work on your behalf.

Yours Sincerely,

Alistair MacGregor, MP
